Manager's Notes

Welcome to the over 1,200 new subscribers for whom this is the first Program Guide. We hope you'll take the time to browse the listings and sample some of the over 160 individual programs we air each week. Good listening.

Thousands of individual subscriptions, just like yours, are the reason we are able to bring you the most diverse, complete and balanced schedule of information, opinion and entertainment programming of any station we can identify in the public radio system.

We are equally grateful for every subscription, whether $5.00 or $5,000.00. The financial support is necessary, but it is the moral support of your commitment to the station which motivates us and gives us the feedback by which we judge our success or failure.

We are committed to fewer days of on-air begging and less disturbance to programming than any other public station in the Bay Area. We honor your support and are committed to using that support for programming and service, not fundraising and frills. We are committed to providing the best radio we can put on the radio and nothing more.

There are only two program changes this quarter. The first is the replacement, for the summer, of the "Chautauqua Lecture Series," on Tuesdays at Noon, with "The City Club Forum." "Chautauqua" will resume production in fall and you will hear it here.

The second change is on Sunday evenings. "Tell Me A Story" is currently out of production. This makes way for the addition of "Rabbit Ears Radio." Hosted by Mel Gibson, this is radio of which memories are made. You'll hear Danny Glover, Robin Williams, Sissy Spacek, Michael Palin, Holly Hunter and Anjelica Houston, to name a few, reading fables, myths, stories and legends that are part of the fabric of American culture. Each program features original music by likes of Mark Isham, Bobby McFerrin, Ry Cooder, Mickey Hart of Grateful Dead (you knew that) and Ladysmith Black Mambazo. A complete listing of this quarter's programs is on page 22. "Rabbit Ears Radio" begins on Sunday, July 10th at 6:00 pm during the "Writer's Block." Bring the kids, this is really special.

By way of acknowledgement, we have to thank Joanne Wallace, my counterpart, at KQED for making this program available. KQED, 88.5 FM is running "Rabbit Ears" on Saturday nights at 10:00 pm following the rebroadcast of "Fog City Radio."

We're running a little behind in fulfilling your requests for premiums. Part of the delay is with our suppliers and part of the delay is just simply because we are still very understaffed. Please be patient, we're doing the best we can.

Speaking of staff, you may have spoken on the phone to our newest staff member, Judy Min. Judy coordinates the interaction between operations and administration as well as easing some of the overload caused by our very rapid and most gratifying growth.

Under the stewardship of Rose Levinson, our partnerships, outreach and service to the Non-Profit and Arts communities are expanding rapidly. We hope you find the informational announcements we now broadcast about cultural events, classes, lectures and discussions as well as community services both useful and informative. The feedback we're getting from our community partners indicates that you do.

We're proud to have been a sponsor of the San Francisco International Film Festival. This summer you'll find KALW at Stern Grove. The station is the media sponsor of the "Celebration of Voices" preview series at the de Young Museum. You're invited to attend the five (5) previews on Fridays at 1:00 pm. See page 23 for details. Join us, on July 31st as Carolyn van Putten hosts a day of a cappella music at The Grove. We might even get her to sing. Check out Carolyn's "Acoustic Journey," Wednesday nights at 9:00, you'll travel to inner spaces you may never have imagined.

You'll also find the station taking a more active role with other arts and civic organizations as well. Your support makes this mission of service possible.

Michael Johnson has been doing a great job with "Open Air" give it a listen at 11:30 am on weekdays. Alan Farley's arts and literary interviews and JoAnn Mar's "Folk Music And Beyond" continue to get better and better too.

A special welcome to those of you who have recently "found" KALW because of "West Coast Live," we hope you like what you hear.

If you haven't yet joined us on a Saturday morning at Fort Mason for Sedge Thomson's "West Coast Live" we've got a discount coupon on page 18 that will make it 20% easier to do so. "WCL" is a fabulous way to entertain summer visitors and a very "San Francisco" experience for all.

We're thinking about other events at Fort Mason in coming months too, stay tuned.

I got a chance to get to know Delano Lewis, the new President of National Public Radio, at the Public Radio Conference in San Antonio in April. Del is everything you've read about him and more. He is the perfect choice to lead NPR into the 21st Century. His personal dynamism, unclouded vision, commitment and enthusiasm are a breath of fresh air (no pun) and excitement. Welcome Del. Illegitimi non carborundum.

We've also had a number of productive discussions with The Corporation For Public Broadcasting, at NPR in both the News and Cultural Programming Departments as well as with CBC, BBC and Public Radio International, PRI (nee APR). You'll be hearing some of the results of these meetings in the near future.

Oh, one last word. Congratulations to those of you who recognized Barbara Budd and Michael Enright of CBC's "As It Happens" as our mystery front cover guests in the last guide. Yes, I really do know that "estute" is spelled "astute." If I didn't, I sure do now. Maybe we'll run a "count the typos" contest next.

Have a great summer.

Thanks,
[Signature]
Jerry Jacobs

"Who Are We?" Winners

In our last program guide we asked you to tell us the identity of the two people on the cover. Most respondents thought it was Joel Block and Deborah Byrd of the "Barth & Sky" program. Noooooooo. Actually it's Barbara Budd and Michael Enright - hosts of CBC's "As It Happens." Our winners (and now proud owners of the highly desired "As It Happens" fridge magnet) are: George Bergman of San Francisco; Andy Johnson of Berkeley; Vanna Born of Livermore; Tom Kellogg of San Francisco; Heather Koshinsky of El Cerrito; Marty Morrow of Piedmont; Nathalie Martimbeau of San Francisco; and Zack of San Francisco.

Thank you to all who entered.

Manager's Notes

It seems like yesterday and it seems like forever. That's the only way to sum up the last two years. So here's what you might call my second annual report:

We're spending much more time out of the studio with live broadcasts and specials. These broadcasts, our media sponsorships of Stern Grove, Solo Mio, The San Francisco Film Festival, various community events and of course "West Coast Live" are all part of the station's dedication to the Arts and non-profit communities.

KALW, of all stations is in a unique position to both grow and serve through these community partnerships. Your continued and generous support makes this possible.

No, we're not planning pickle drillings, beer bashes or tofu socials. We're not in the event business, we're just trying to make good radio and to serve our community. We hope you like what you're hearing.

If you'd like one of our staff to speak to your civic organization, school or group, give us a call. You'll get to hear an insider's view of KALW and public radio and we'll get to hear what you think and how we can do better.

Speaking of hearing (not a very clever segue) the Chautauque Lectures are back and will rotate with City Club Forum on Tuesdays at Noon. You asked for more from John Dvorak, so Software/Hardtalk goes to a full hour on Wednesday Mornings at 10 am. That's it for programming revisions this quarter.

On the subject of programming, we've been considering some changes on Saturday and Sunday and I'd really like to know what you think. We've gotten many requests to schedule "To The Best Of Our Knowledge" (TTBOOK) in the daytime. If you haven't heard this show, you've missed one of the most interesting newsmagazines in public radio. We currently bury it on alternate Tuesday nights at 9:00 pm.

We're considering moving TTBOOK to Sundays at Noon and moving Harry Shearer's "Le Show" to a later slot on Sunday afternoon.

Michael Feldman's "Whad'ya Know" used to be on Saturday afternoon where it did very well. For some reason it has not done well on Sunday. We're thinking of moving it to Saturday at noon following "West Coast Live." I'm most interested in knowing what you think. Let us know. You can send a short note or an after hours message at 415-695-5740. Of course, I'd be happy to talk to you in person if you'd like, just ask for me.

Our fall subscription drive begins on October 14th and runs through October 25th. We'll have some new premiums, some special programming and we hope, some fun. We'll try to keep it light, informative, painless and guilt free. October is a good time to do end of the year tax planning and to order up some annual KALW subscriptions as gifts for the holidays. All subscriptions of $250 and above will automatically receive acknowledgement for the IRS.

We don't solicit commercial underwriting. We avoid contests, sweepstakes, telephone pitches and direct mail pleas for additional money. We do the fewest, least intrusive days of on air fundraising of any Bay Area public station. Our cost of fundraising is minimal. Why, because of your recognition of KALW's value through your subscription support. Thanks.

I hope you're happy with the progress we've made in the last two years. We are blessed with a great staff of hardworking professionals. We're all most grateful for your support, thanks.

Thanks,
Jerry Jacob
